

Zoology: Syllabus

Instructor

Curtis Freeman

Phone

(706) 253-1800 Ext. 222

Email

curtisfreeman@pickens
countyschools.org

Office Location

Room 222

Office Hours

Best reached:
7:30am-9:30am

Course Overview

In Zoology, you will learn about: Habits of the Mind, The Nature of Science, Phylogeny of Animal Taxa, Evolutionary History, Form and Function of Organisms Across Taxa, Interactions of Animal to the Environment, Organisms Relationships to Each Other.

Homework Policy

Assigned homework is expected to be completed by the next day. Late work can earn a maximum grade of 70%.

Required Text

The Americans, McDougal Littell

Eyewitness to America, David Colbert

Course Materials

- 1 inch binder, College Rule Paper, Graphing Paper, Pencils, 3 part dividers

Course Contents

Unit 1: Habits of the Mind

Unit 2: The Nature of Science

Unit 3: Phylogeny of Animal Taxa

Unit 4: Evolutionary History of Organisms

Unit 5: Form and Function of Organisms Across Taxa

Unit 6: Interactions of Animal to the Environment

Unit 7: Organisms Relationships to Each Other.

Course Grading

- 40% Formative 60% Summative Final Exam 20% of Total